Founded in 2003, Carpe Diem Intérim is an independent generalist temporary employment agency working across a range of sectors such as industry, construction, civil engineering and services.

With more than one hundred temporary staff, Carpe Diem Intérim has annual revenue of around €5 million.

Founded in Manosque in 1990, the Proman group – 100% French and family-owned – is now the leading independent company in temporary work, and permanent and short-term recruitment. The group has more than 400 branches and revenue of €1.93 billion.

The philosophy of the Proman group matches perfectly that of Carpe Diem Intérim. “We share the same desire to focus on the human aspect and to lift people up”, commented Eric Auriacombe, Director and shareholder at Carpe Diem Intérim.

“Our group’s strategy is to acquire companies that are like us, and that share our values. Once again, this is very true of this acquisition.” added Roland Gomez, Chief Executive Officer at Proman.

CM-CIC Transactions Pme acted as the exclusive advisor to the shareholders of Carpe Diem Intérim.
